BTEC Co-Hosts Congressional Briefing on Biomass Thermal Energy

Event to be held on November 6 in the Capitol Visitor Center

WASHINGTON D.C., October 30 --- On November 6, the Biomass Thermal Energy Council (BTEC) will be co-hosting a Congressional briefing on biomass thermal energy policy. This briefing, organized by BTEC, the Pellet Fuels Institute, and the Alliance for Green Heat, will focus on unifying public policy efforts related to making the most efficient use of America's sustainable biomass resources.

This policy briefing is open to the public and will be held in the new U.S. Capitol Visitor Center. Speakers will include industry and nonprofit leaders in biomass thermal energy.

What: Biomass Thermal Energy Policy Briefing

When: November 6, 2009 (1 – 2 p.m.)

Where: Capitol Visitor Center, Room SVC 210, Capitol Hill, Washington D.C.

More information on the briefing is available on our website, www.biomassthermal.org.

About the Biomass Thermal Energy Council

The Biomass Thermal Energy Council (BTEC) is a non-profit association dedicated to advancing the use of biomass for heat and other thermal energy applications. BTEC is an association of biomass fuel producers, appliance manufacturers and distributors, supply chain companies and non-profit organizations that view biomass thermal energy as a renewable, responsible, clean and energy-efficient pathway to meeting America's energy needs. BTEC engages in research, education, and public advocacy for the fast growing biomass thermal energy industry.
